Division of Flood Management

Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings Coming Fall 2009

June 2009

Department of Water Resources

What are Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings?

The Department of Water Resources (DWR), Flood Operations Center (FOC) along with our local, state and federal partners will provide a brief overview during the meeting of current and future weather, water and potential flood conditions, DWR FOC flood preparedness and emergency response activities, and flood fight methods and other related topics.

Who should attend these meetings? Water managers, flood emergency responders, and managers who coordinate flood emergency preparedness and response.

Locations:

Southern California

FOC staff will be hosting meetings in Southern California the week of September 21-25, 2009 at the following locations:

Ventura County – September 21st
Santa Barbara County – September 22nd
San Bernardino Counties – September 23rd
San Diego County – September 24th

Northern California

FOC staff plan to be in Northern California at the following locations (dates are tentative):

Redding – October 14th
Yuba City – October 15th
Sacramento – October 22nd
Stockton – October 27th
Eureka – November 17th

Flood Fight Training Classes

The FOC conducts Flood Fight Training (FFT) classes around the state annually. To schedule a FFT class or to find out where classes will be held in your area, please contact Rick Burnett, Flood Fight Specialist at (916) 574-1203 or rburnett@water.ca.gov

For more information on the Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings or to request a smaller meeting with your agency, please contact:

Wendy Stewart
DWR – Flood Operations Center
(916) 574-0358
Flood_center@water.ca.gov

Michelle A. Trotter
DWR – Flood Operation Branch
(916) 574-1211
mtrotter@water.ca.gov

We hope you can attend!