Dear Cooperators:

We are pleased to announce that our 55th Annual Cooperators' Meeting of the Snow Survey Program will be held at the Stanford Sierra Conference Center at Fallen Leaf Lake near South Lake Tahoe, California, October 27-29, 2009. This year marks the 80th Anniversary of the establishment of the California Cooperative Snow Surveys (CCSS) Program, as well as the 100th Anniversary of the first snow survey. Lodging reservations may only be made directly with Stanford Sierra by using the attached reservation form. The lodging plan rates include the CCSS meeting registration fee which are payable directly to Stanford Sierra. There will not be a separate registration form to return to Snow Surveys.
